So... How much is it?

No school will be turned away for Financial Reasons.

All Performances, Workshops and Residencies are offered on a 'Donate What You Can' Basis.

Donations historically have ranged from $50 - $500

We created this series to ensure that all youth & schools regardless of financial means have access to quality and engaging arts education experiences this academic year.

How do I book?

Visit theatreprospero.ca/schools and fill out our booking request form. You can also book via phone by calling our outreach coordinator.

If you are interested in our Virtual Artist in Residency Program please contact us prior to submitting a request.

What tech do we need?

Our technical team works with each school to ensure a smooth set up for all virtual activities. For optimal experience, schools will need one computer and a screen to project our broadcast onto. 'At-home learners' may tune in on their personal devices. Interactive workshops & residencies will be conducted using applications such as Google Classroom or Zoom. Significant Technical Instruction will be provided upon confirmation of your booking. We are there to help you through every step!

Theatre Prospero Presents

A Virtual Midsummer Night's Dream

February 1st – 26th 2021

Make Shakespeare the best part of your curriculum this year!

Join our Troupe of Artists in the forest of Athens! Chose from our options below to get started:

JUST THE PLAY: VIRTUAL PERFORMANCE

Keep our visit short and sweet! Your students will love our youthful production. Live talk backs with actors and designers take place following each virtual performance.

SHAKESPEARE 101 STUDY PERIODS

Looking to make your Drama or English course a little livelier this year? Book our Actors for a Scene Study Period or Interactive Script Reading. This is a fantastic way to engage your students and kick off some spirited study! Interested in a different Shakespearean play? Please contact us.

VIRTUAL ARITST IN RESIDENCY PROGRAM

Our artists will work with your students to create a virtual theatrical performance based on A Midsummer Night's Dream. Students will have the opportunity to perform with our actors, or work with our production team to create lighting, set and costume elements.

Visit: theatreprospero.ca/schools to book!

THE THOUSAND FACES FESTIVAL & THEATRE PROSPERO PRESENT...

ROCKO & NAKOTA:

TALES FROM THE LAND

Written & Performed by Josh Languedoc

Meet Nakota.
A young boy who is trying to write the greatest story ever. One day, his grandfather, 103-year-old Rocko, comes over for a visit. Next thing Nakota knows, he is whisked away into a world of stories that are right below his feet. This show explores the interplay between stories of the present against the long forgotten stories of the past.

LIVE Broadcast on National Indigenous Peoples Day:

JUNE 21ST, 2021 @ 1:00PM
